Armstrong is a fifth generation Louisiana native, born in New Orleans, who has a long and distinguished record of public service. She serves on the powerful Senate Finance Committee where she provides oversight for all federal programs that impact the people of Louisiana. Senator Armstrong's background includes more than 30 years in public service, including three years as a public school teacher in the New Orleans Public School System. She is also a former president of New Orleans' Parent-Teacher Association. She is currently the president of two legislative organizations, the Louisiana Association of Business and Industry and the Louisiana Small Business Development Center. Senator Armstrong has been active in state politics since 1982 and in 1986 was elected to the Louisiana State Senate. She has also been instrumental in the passage of several landmark state programs, including a major business expansion initiative for Louisiana, the Medicaid Buy-In legislation to provide assistance for those in need of health coverage, and most recently, the bi-partisan mentoring bill that brought higher education and the business community together to help eliminate the high drop-out rate for young people. Senator Armstrong is a graduate of Tulane University where she earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology and Psychology. She received her Juris Doctorate from the University of New Orleans College of 82157476af
